MILITIA FORCES ARE REVIEWED

DUKE OF CONNAUGHT
WITNESSES PARADE

Vancouver, Sept. 20.—Under a brilliant sun and a clear blue sky, in the picturesque surroundings of Brockton Point grounds, Vancouver's militia order; On the right line, some seventy strong, was the sixth company of Field Engineers, then came the Duke of Connaught's Own Rifles, under command of Col. J. Duff-Stuart, 350 strong, then

Edwards Leckie, and the Eighteenth field ambulance to the number of 100, under the command of Major F. C. McTavish. Colonel Wadmore, district officer commanding, was in supreme command and a number of staff and along the tree-lined avenue that links with the bridge, were ranked in double, triple and quadruple rows thousands of loyal sightseers. Along the Stanley park bridge clustered and perched about the gullies were hundreds of about the railing, maintaining precarious footholds and wedged together to avoid the huge crowds that were hurrying towards the grounds in a torrent, stood thousands more. On Georgia, at the approach of the bridge while every minute their numbers were augmented when street cars drew up and deposited their patriotic burdens.

Brilliant Scene.

"Make two distinct bows," was the whispered injunction, and with two distinct bows more than twenty hundred of Vancouver's elite acknowledged their introduction to their Royal Highnesses the Duke of Connaught and the Duchess of Connaught and Princess Patricia at the Hotel Vancouver last night. It was the supreme occasion of the vice-regal visit, and those who had received invitations did full justice to

The scene in the large dining-room was one not soon to be forgotten. Garlands of fir stretched from pillar to pillar, until the ceiling resembled a wood-

Scarlet coated soldiers, whose decorations showed active service in many climes, walked arm in arm with their younger and less experienced colleagues in his Majesty's service. Gorgeously dressed women strolled through the spacious room, leaning on the arms of their escorts.

Members of parliament were there. Men whose names have become household words from the Atlantic to the Pacific in the realms of business, finance or art, mingled with the less notable, knowing that in the eyes of these Highnesses all were alike.

There was no question of precedence; those who arrived first were presented first.

At the close of the presentation ceremonies the royal guests left the hall walking slowly down an aisle between human walls. Then, and only then, the enthusiasm of the tremendous crowd broke the bonds of formality and the distinguished guests were applauded to the echo.

Altogether the function seemed to be the most successful ever held in Vancouver. The list of guests was large but not too large for comfort. More might have caused a blockade at the entrance to the rooms, but as it turned out the number had been excellently judged. Stalwart Vancouver policemen stood at the doorways, warning back the over-curious, but never needed to outside were as well behaved as those who were admitted, and never for a moment was the ceremonial occasion anything but a distinctly royal and loyal gathering.

INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENTS.
Eighty-Eight Workmen Killed and 305 Injured in Month of August.

Ottawa, Sept. 20.—According to the record of industrial accidents maintained in the Department of Labor for the month of August 88 workmen were killed and 305 injured, compared with 108 fatal and 272 non-fatal accidents during the month of July; or a decrease of 20 in the number of fatal and an increase of 33 non-fatal accidents compared with the record for July. The least number of fatalities occurred

In the building trades and in the steam way service, there being 11 workmen killed in the former and 35 in the latter. In the metal trades and steam way service, the largest number non-fatal accidents occurred, the record being 65 in the case of the former and 53 in the latter.

DUKE OF CONNAUGHT ON CANADIAN LOYALTY

Governor-General Guest at Luncheon Given by Vancouver Canadian Club

Vancouver, Sept. 20.—The Canadian Club gave a luncheon yesterday in honor of His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught. The immense rink, converted into an auditorium for the occasion, was brilliant with flags and bunting.

Promptly on time His Royal Highness put in an appearance and the audience rose and cheered the Governor-General to the echo. He was escorted into the building by Mayor Findlay and Mr. von Cramer, president of the Canadian Club.

His Royal Highness, in replying to the address of welcome presented by the chairman, Mr. von Cramer, said: "Mr. President, and gentlemen of the Vancouver Canadian Club, I desire to thank you all for the hearty words of welcome to which I have just listened this afternoon. I assure you that I heartily appreciate the warmth of the welcome you have extended to me. It is not the first time that I have had the pleasure of addressing a Canadian club—this is the fifth occasion on the present tour—and I have been struck by the strong national spirit which prevails throughout the length and breadth of this Dominion. I feel convinced that the strong national spirit will grow amid the great prosperity which you are enjoying at the present moment, and upon which I congratulate you. I have, as you know, been travelling through the length and breadth of this Dominion for the last two months, and I have been able to judge a little—not as deeply as I should like—of the immense advances and prosperity, and I hope it will long continue."

"I am quite sure that there is no stronger foundation for the promotion of the interests of the country than a strong national spirit. (Loud applause.) In this great Canadian spirit there is also a strong filial sentiment. (Loud applause.) To one in my position—one who has been honored with the post of governor-general of this great country—it is a great help to know that in doing all that I can to promote its interests I have the support and sympathy of all Canadians. (Applause.)"

"I feel that I have met with the greatest kindness, the greatest good feeling and the greatest loyalty, and I should like to bear witness myself to how much I appreciate this loyal spirit, and I am happy that on my return to Ottawa next month, at the end of my two months' tour I shall be able to inform His Majesty, our most gracious sovereign, of the real affection and devotion of his Canadian subjects. (Cheers.)"

"There has been no one who has occupied the throne who has a better knowledge of this vast empire than our King. (Applause.) In a small way I myself, have also the advantage of serving in many portions of the empire, and it is to me a source of the deepest satisfaction that there is a strong spirit for the good of the empire springing up from one end of it to the other."

Turning again to the subject of his welcome, His Royal Highness proceeded: "I should like again to assure you how much and how deeply I appreciate the immense expense and trouble that has been taken to show by your outward manifestations your feeling of loyalty to the sovereign here. (Applause.) I hope that those who have assisted in making this civic reception what it is will assure others whom I have not had the opportunity of thanking personally how much the Duchess and myself appreciate our reception here. I am not making a political speech, but I will again express my appreciation of the welcome you have given me. I hope I shall have the pleasure of meeting you all on another occasion. (Hear, hear.) I much appreciate the kind feeling you have shown me, and it will be a great help to me in my official position to feel that I have the support and sympathy of all Canadians. (Loud cheers.)"

Mr. von Cramer thanked His Royal Highness in the following words: "On behalf of the members of the Canadian Club, allow me to tender Your Royal Highness our hearty thanks for having graciously consented to address our club on this occasion. Allow me to say that your words will long live in our memories, and the presence of Your Royal Highness to-day marks an epoch in the history of the club which will last for all time."

Every nook and corner of the new banquet hall of the Hotel Vancouver was filled when the members of the Women's Canadian Club of Vancouver gathered to tender a loyal and hearty welcome to their Royal Highnesses, the Duke of Connaught and the Princess Patricia. The sincerity of the welcome given by these Canadian women to their Royal visitors must linger long as a pleasant memory in the minds of those who witnessed the presentation.

YOUNG WOMAN IS ACCUSED OF BIGAMY

Chinese Society of Californian Town Offers to Raise Defence Fund

San Bernardino, Cal., Sept. 20.—An offer of defence funds made yesterday by a Chinese society, added an element of mystery to the case of Mrs. Florence Burnett Richardson, a comely young woman who was arrested in Los Angeles and lodged in jail here, because it is alleged she married three times within two years without having first submitted her status to the divorce court. The Chinese who made the offer declined to tell why they did it, saying only that the young woman had aided the cause of the young republic in the Orient.

Mrs. Richardson, after her arrest, said she came from Canada a little more than two years ago, and that she had never been married to anyone but Clyde Shamall, a Redlands engineer. Shamall will be one of two husbands who will appear against her. The other alleged husbands were Albert Barrett, to whom, according to the police, she was married in Canada, and a man named Richardson.

Barrett and Shamall swore out the warrant upon which the young woman was arrested.

KETTLE VALLEY RAILWAY.

Expectations Are That Work Will be Completed in February, 1914.

Penticton, Sept. 20.—The Kettle Valley Railway Company have let contracts for the building of railway stations at Rock Creek, Westbridge, Bonville and Carlin. Steel is laid almost to Carlin, and work from that point to the summit is progressing favorably, although there is considerable difficulty in getting labor. About two hundred men are at work near Naramata on the Grant Smith contract, and a large camp will be established about two and one-half miles from Penticton very shortly. An engineer's camp has already been established south of Three Mile Point, and the right-of-way agent is making purchases from the owners of the bench orchards. From present appearances, there is a possibility that the work may be completed on contract time, which expires in February, 1914.

COMMUNICATION RESTORED.

Douglas, Ariz., Sept. 20.—Cananea was again placed in communication with the outside world by rail yesterday. The train from Naco since the rebels, under Emilio Campa, destroyed the bridges at Villavieja contained provisions, which were becoming scarce at Cananea. A trainload of copper bullion was shipped out. There are about 300 federal troops there, and the place is in no immediate danger of molestation by rebels.

DIES SUDDENLY.

Tucson, Ariz., Sept. 20.—S. W. Gundaker, aged 40, owner of the big Mohawk and the Papago Chief gold and copper mines in this section, and extensively interested in the Coeur d'Alene district of Idaho, died suddenly here. His death was due to what the physicians pronounced a rare and as yet unnamed disease, which affected the lobes of the brain.

WILL NOT JOIN SOCIALISTS.

Harve, Sept. 20.—The general federation of labor which is holding its biennial congress here voted yesterday to continue outside the Socialist party.

COMMERCIALISM IN EVANGELICAL WORK

Speakers at Conference at Chicago Score Present-Day Evangelists

Chicago, Sept. 20.—"Evangelism in the United States has degenerated into commercialism and professionalism," according to Dr. J. M. Gray, dean of the Moody Institute, who spoke before the National Conference of Evangelists here.

"The present-day evangelist becomes so tangled up with 'boosters' and hymn book propositions that they simply are in a money-making business," asserted Dr. Gray.

Methods of finance conducted by some successful evangelists were declared to be "nothing but graft" by Rev. Dr. B. F. Taylor, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Indianapolis. "When I started out as an evangelist," said Dr. Taylor, "another evangelist invited me to come to his house, and he said, 'learn the tricks of the trade.'"

"I've got 'em skinned a mile in taking an offering," was one of this evangelist's boasts," continued Dr. Taylor. "Imagine Wesley or Moody saying that!"

OIL TRADE WITH JAPAN.

New York Standard Company Purchases Oil From California Standard.

New York, Sept. 20.—The Standard Oil Company, of New York, exports to Japan oil which it purchases from the Standard Oil Company, of California, and the California company makes oil shipments to Honolulu but not to Japan, according to Richard C. Velt, secretary of the New York company. Mr. Velt so declared yesterday in continuing testimony before a referee in the Standard Oil-Waters-Pierce litigation.

"Why doesn't the California company export oil to Japan?" asked Mr. Waters-Pierce. "I don't know," Velt replied.

The witness added that he failed to remember whether the New York company sent its ships from New York to California to get the oil.

It looked "businesslike," he thought, for his company to care for the Japanese business, rather than for the California company to do so. The witness declared there was no competition between the New York and the California company for the Japanese business.

DUNCAN WATERWORKS.

Will Be Taken Over by the City on October 10.

Duncan, Sept. 20.—At the last meeting of the city council there was some discussion concerning the taking over of the waterworks by the city and the committee appointed to confer with the waterworks company recommended as follows:

"That the city take over the waterworks on the 10th of October next, on an agreement for sale, pending the disposal of the debentures."

"That a first payment of $5,000 be made, and that the balance be secured upon the plant and system at 7 per cent until the debentures are disposed of."

"That the waterworks company be required to obtain from the E. & N. railway the payment of $2,000 which they offered to pay as compensation; or an assurance that the amount will be paid to the city subsequently."

The report was accepted and the clerk was instructed to write to the secretary of the waterworks company accordingly.

FIGHT PICTURES SEIZED.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 20.—The first confiscation here of prize fight moving picture films, the interstate shipment of a portion of which is forbidden by a federal law passed June 20, was made here in the seizure of 2,400 feet of films picturing the Jeffries-Johnson and Gans-Herman fights.

The films were found in the baggage of A. D. Hartman, a theatrical promoter, who arrived here from the Orient on the Japanese liner Tenyo Maru. Hartman said he had exhibited the pictures in the Orient and had not learned of the passage of the law.

The penalty for violation of federal statute is a fine of $1,000 and imprisonment not to exceed one year, or both. The films will be held pending a decision by the department of commerce and labor. It is not believed that Hartman will be prosecuted.

LEAPS TO HIS DEATH.

Chicago, Sept. 20.—Prevented from jumping to his death in the interior of the Masonic temple building by wire nets, C. R. Rasmussen climbed to the roof of the 22-story structure and jumped off. His body crashed on the roof of an adjoining building, 14 stories below, and he was instantly killed. Rasmussen was an insurance solicitor and was 22 years old. No reason for his act is known.

DIRIGIBLE'S OVERSEA FLIGHT.

Hamburg, Sept. 20.—The Zeppelin dirigible balloon made an oversea voyage to Denmark and Sweden yesterday, visiting the Danish capital and Malmö, a Swedish naval port. The voyage occupied 13 hours, which included a landing at Copenhagen for luncheon. The fastest train between Hamburg and Copenhagen runs the distance in nine hours.

German military experts point out that the air voyage was far more difficult than a flight from Cologne to London.

ROOSEVELT AND CONTROL OF TRUSTS

Former President Denies the Statements Attributed to Democratic Candidate

Trinidad, Colo., Sept. 20.—A flat denial of statements attributed to Woodrow Wilson in regard to the Progressive party's attitude toward the trusts was made by Col. Roosevelt in a speech here. He said Governor Wilson had made statements not in accordance with the facts and quoted the New Jersey executive as stating in a speech at Sioux Falls, S. D., that the Progressive plan would work for the interests of large corporations and would give them control of the market for labor.

"Neither of these statements is in accordance with facts," said Mr. Roosevelt, "and five minutes' inquiry on Mr. Wilson's part would have taught him that there was not one particle of foundation for what he was saying. In his speech Mr. Wilson stated that the new method proposed by the Progressives to regulate the trusts was suggested by Messrs. Gary and Perkins before the House of Representatives' committee named to look into the steel trust, and he suggested that it was done to save the United States Steel Corporation from the necessity of doing its business better than its competitors."

"Not only now, but again and again in messages to congress and in speech after speech while I was president I advocated the method advocated by the Progressives for handling the trust question, which is practically the principle applied in the work of the interstate commerce commission. I wish to call attention at this time to the fact that as far as I know an overwhelming majority of men who control both the Steel Corporation and the harvest trusts are supporting either Mr. Wilson or Mr. Taft. They are certain to oppose me. Mr. Wilson is championing the cause of the big crooked trusts when he opposes the Progressive plank for extending the powers of government over the big trusts just as it is being extended over the railroads."

"I call your attention to the fact that ours is a constructive policy and Wilson does not put forth a single constructive proposal. His policy is not even destructive, it is only make-believe destruction. His policy is merely to do nothing. Our policy is effectively to control and regulate the big trusts."

NICARAGUAN TROUBLE.

Rebels Fire on Train Carrying U. S. Marines to Granada.

Managua, Nicaragua, Sept. 18, via San Juan del Sur, Sept. 19.—(Delayed in transmission).—For the last three days the Nicaraguan government forces have been attacking Masaya, the southern headquarters of the rebels, about twenty miles from the capital. The troops have succeeded in reaching the outskirts of the city, forcing the rebels to retire to the fortress on Barranca Hill.

Major Smedley D. Butler, commanding a battalion of American marines, left Managua to-day to open the railroad to Granada, on Lake Nicaragua, and to do this it was necessary to pass through Masaya.

As the train approached Masaya it was fired on by the insurgents and the engine came to a standstill. The firing continuing, the train backed out of range of the rebels' guns.

Major Butler sent a note to the insurgent commander, stating that his object was to open the railroad and that he desired to do it peacefully. The note added that if no answer to the message was received by 4 o'clock in the afternoon the marines would advance. General Zeledon, insurgent commander, agreed to meet Major Butler and talk over the situation tomorrow morning. The train bearing American marines is also carrying a quantity of red cross supplies for the relief of the people of Granada who have been reduced to the last stages of starvation.

NEW BRIDGE OPENED.

Duke and Duchess of Connaught Take Part in Ceremony at Vancouver.

Vancouver, Sept. 20.—"Cambie bridge," a name intimately connected with the history of Vancouver, disappeared yesterday, and "Connaught bridge" took its place.

Considering that no higher tribute could be paid the Royal Connaught's than to dedicate to them the monumental new bridge that spans False creek and links up Vancouver business heart with the homes of citizens on the "hill," the city yesterday parted with an old name and gladly took for the bridge a new one.

With the words "I christen this bridge Connaught bridge," the Duchess of Connaught pulled a multi-colored cord at noon, breaking a bottle of champagne against the steel railing on the west side of the new bridge at the north end where the opening ceremony was performed. The Duke of Connaught drew another which allowed a row of flags suspended across the bridge roadway to drop, thus formally opening the bridge to traffic. The arrangements for the opening and christening were carried out without a hitch.

INFANT KILLED BY FALLING TREE

Four-Weeks-Old Baby is Crushed to Death During Absence of Parents

Vancouver, Sept. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Waldermeier Cook, who had been down town on Wednesday afternoon, returned to the tent in which they were living at the corner of Dunbar and Eighth avenue, and found that a large tree had fallen across the canvas house, had smashed the furniture to fragments and had instantly killed their baby, a boy only four weeks old. The tree, it is thought, was half rotten, and torn from its stump by the constant swaying caused by the heavy gusts of wind that blew all day. The exact time of the accident is not known, as that district, being one of the newer parts of the city, is sparsely settled, and probably no one saw the accident. It was not until nearly midnight that the Kitsilano substation of the police department was notified, and in the darkness they were unable to investigate closely. The parents, who are Finlanders, were too dazed to offer any information. The body was not badly mutilated.

AS TO TERMINALS.

The city council of Vancouver in its endeavor to reach an understanding with the Canadian Northern Railway respecting terminal facilities in that city has insisted on a definition of the word "terminus" in order that no future misunderstanding of the objects and aims of the company may arise. The catechizing of Colonel Davidson, who represented the company in one of the meetings of the council, elucidated the situation clearly. The interrogatory alteration between the company and the council is reported in these words:

The mayor brought the question up when he asked Col. Davidson to make it clear again for the benefit of the citizens what the company proposed to do in Vancouver in the event of setting into False Creek.

"We want no misunderstanding," said Mayor Findlay. "Will this city be your terminus both for passenger and freight purposes, including steamship freights?"

"It is our intention to make this city our terminus. If we come to an agreement with you as much as it is that of the C. P. R. or any other trans-continental railway to come," replied Col. Davidson.

"But your payroll and your freight yards will be at Port Mann," objected Ald. White.

"That is not in accordance with the statement I just made," Colonel Davidson told him.

"If my statement that we propose to make this city our terminus just as much as the C. P. R. does will not satisfy you," he told the committee, "then you would not be satisfied with us at all."

The News-Advertiser of the Mainland terminus says in this connection:

"The various uses of the word 'terminus' are causing some confusion. If the Canadian Northern shall build its passenger terminus at False Creek, and establish its shops and other appropriate terminals at Port Mann, it will still require other Vancouver terminals, where its ocean-bound freight will be transferred to ships."

It appears very clear in the mind of every organ supporting the McBride-Canadian Northern Railway deal that a "terminus" is any place where a railway discharges freight or passengers. So, like Vancouver, the city of Victoria may also have two or even three "terminals" of the Canadian Northern.

Without in any way minimizing the importance of that share of the railway development on Vancouver Island which it falls to the lot and good fortune of the Canadian Northern Pacific to perform, we think we state no more than the fact when we say that these latest revelations are not what the people of Victoria and Vancouver Island were promised when they were asked to endorse the McBride railway projects of 1909. Victorians were confidently informed that the Canadian Northern Railway was to be and do for Victoria what the Canadian Pacific had done for Vancouver. It was declared that the whole of the Canadian Northern oceanic shipping was to be loaded upon ocean going vessels at Victoria and that connection was to be made with the Mainland by fast passenger and freight ferries which would in no way extend the time of travel or transportation to the Orient from this port. There are a thousand persons in Victoria who voted for the McBride government in the belief that the organ of that government was telling the truth and knew whereof it spoke. One of two things must be true. Either the government and its organ were too sanguine and overestimated the good intentions of the Canadian Northern toward Victoria or else they entered into a conspiracy to deceive the electors. We do not care very much which of the horns of this dilemma these parties care to select for their impalement.

What is growing more evident as the plans and intentions of the Canadian Northern Railway Company are developed is that the whole of the trans-oceanic traffic is to be shipped from Mainland points. Not a ton of it will ever be brought to Victoria for ocean shipment. We do not manufacture these facts; we simply state them. If Sir Richard McBride knew these things when he made the agreements he has betrayed again the interests of the city of Victoria which honored him by electing him to the first place in the government. If he did not know these things the people of Victoria have leaned upon a weak and incapable statesman and are now to suffer the inevitable penalty of their misplaced trust.

HARBOR POLLUTION.

Several letters, written to and published in the Times during the past week have directed public attention to the polluted condition of the inner harbor and the waters of Victoria Arm. It is unnecessary to add anything to the statements of fact which the writers of these letters have set forth. The citizens of Victoria are entitled to have these conditions remedied. They have a right to expect these waters to be kept as free from pollution as it is possible to keep them, not alone from considerations of health and comfort, but from consideration of wider interest to the city. The effect of such conditions upon the minds of visitors, especially those from other cities where similar conditions have been remedied, is not one which conduces to the general admiration in which Victoria is otherwise held.

Nor should it be necessary for the public to agitate in order to have the situation bettered. It is the duty of those in authority to see that the work is done. Whatever method is best to accomplish the end in view should be advocated by the officials of the government. If it is necessary to secure the endorsement of public sentiment in the nature of strong petitions, or in some other way, it is the duty of these officials to seek it. The public will not be slow to stand sponsors for the local officials in the urging of any scheme which will, once and for ever, put an end to what is becoming a grievance of the people and increasingly so as population increases.

THE MINING CONVENTION.

The convention of the Canadian Mining Institute, which has just concluded its annual session in Victoria, has prominently in public attention the importance of the mining industry in Canada. The growing importance of the industry in British Columbia has been a feature of more than local interest. While the subjects discussed have been more or less technical and of a nature to appeal mostly to those directly interested in the industry the general public will be interested in those phases of the industry which constitute its importance to the province.

The mining industry in British Columbia has had a chequered experience and the trials and disappointments of the earlier period of exploitation need not be recounted. While lead and zinc production have decreased during the past year, as compared with 1910, it will be gratifying to know that the production of copper shows a marked increase. The Boundary district decreased its copper production in 1911 by 6,500,000 pounds and the West Kootenay also suffered a decrease of about 300,000 pounds, but both these were more than compensated by the increase of 3,000,000 pounds in the Coast districts. The coast mines are said to bid fair to maintain this ratio of increase in future years and to make a much larger output of the metal than in former years.

The principal Coast producers of copper ore are the Britannia mines on Howe Sound and the Marble Bay and Cornell mines on Texada Island, though at Goose Bay and Observatory Inlet very large bodies of ore have been uncovered.

The decreased output of zinc ores is accounted for by the lack of transportation facilities to make possible the profitable shipment. This is a matter which can be overcome and we have no doubt that steps will be taken to provide facilities for the development of the resources which are now proven sufficiently to warrant such outlay.

The Toronto Mail and Empire remarks that "even in a Turkish bath a British cabinet minister cannot feel secure from suffragette intrusion." This is somewhat rude but the suffragettes have brought it on themselves.

Ever since he got back home, Mr. Borden has utilized every speech to talk about Canada as "a nation." In Laurier that used to be called treason by people who now cheer it till their lungs give out. No use talking, a change does good.

It is hoped by many city ratepayers that the investigation now being carried on respecting sewer work in the city will lead to the discovery and fixing of responsibility for the ordering of vitrified pipe instead of the kind ordered by the council. Perhaps this could be done by summoning a member of the firm supplying the pipe. It would seem imperative also that the committee find out what became of the 6,000 feet of concrete pipe which seems to have been mislaid. Let this investigation make discovery of something vital and important in the administration of civic affairs.

The Hamilton Herald is puzzled because "Premier McBride of British Columbia appears to prefer the Asiatic menace to the German peril for naval exploitation purposes." And pray, why not? The one is as good as the other and for local politics better.

The first issue of the Bella Coola Courier, dated September 14, has reached us. The issue presents a very creditable appearance. The thriving community of Bella Coola required a weekly paper, which has now been supplied by the enterprise of its citizens. The Courier deserves success and evidently intends to command it.

Mr. J. Herrick McGregor, in a letter in another column, charges the Times with discourtesy because, as he alleges, it did not print a former letter from him dealing with the appointment of a chief of police for Oak Bay. Mr. McGregor cannot be certain that he is right when he makes this statement because the letter he refers to was printed, as he can easily find out by referring to a file of the Times. Is he any more certain that he is right in his dispute about what happened in a conversation with Mr. Beckton?

IT RANKLES.

From the New York World.
It can never be agreeable to Americans to read in London newspapers that the President of the United States is regarded as a pettifogger. The impression made is doubly painful when the pettifogger appears to have been accused. All the globe at him and at us for our violation of treaty obligations in the matter of the Panama canal toll cut deep and rankle because they are true.

Revolver and Pistol Cartridges

Some people take a lot of care in selecting a revolver or pistol, and then buy any cartridges whatever. No wonder they don't always get good results. There is just as much difference in cartridges as in firearms. Always get Winchester make of cartridges and you will have cartridges that are reliable and uniform in shooting and give maximum velocity. They cost no more than inferior makes.

SUES FOR COST OF SHERRINGTON HAUL

Plaintiff Gets Half His Claim—Commission Case Regarding Gordon Head Farm

In the county court this morning Arthur T. Harvey, a teamster, brought an action against Thomas Stedham, contractor, for hauling supplies to a camp at Sherrington Point, where the defendant had a contract with the Dominion government for the construction of a lighthouse. The plaintiff took out six loads of material, and claimed $100 for the work, but the defendant regarded the charge as excessive, and claimed a verbal agreement with the plaintiff for a rate of 75 cents per hundred pounds. No tally of the weight had been kept by either of the parties, and the plaintiff denied any arrangement by weight, he having agreed to haul the material at the regular price.

During the negotiations regarding the price the plaintiff said he had offered to take $85, and the defendant had offered him $95, which he declined. This morning Judge Lampan gave judgment for $50 and costs, splitting the amount claimed in two because of the failure by the parties to keep an account of the weight hauled. Mr. McIntosh appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. Higgins for the defendant.

Alexander McIlbride is suing for the amount of $500 commission alleged to be due on the sale of a farm at Gordon Head belonging to Mrs. Ada Cameron. The plaintiff claims to have acted as agent, and by instructions received from Mr. Cameron. He gave evidence that he had introduced the buyer, and said he had earned the commission. The case is proceeding. Mr. Stackpole appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. Tait for the defendant.

The appeal brought by R. R. Jones, of Oak Bay, against a conviction in the Oak Bay court for automobile speeding on Oak Bay avenue was allowed yesterday afternoon by Judge Lampan. There were several witnesses for the appellant, and but one for the crown.

HEALEY CASE ON.

Legal Arguments Before Chief Justice To-day Regarding Sooke Lake Land.

Before the chief justice the Healey land case over the Sooke Lake waterworks construction is being heard this afternoon. His lordship being asked to decide between the parties on points of law. The chief points being raised are as to the amount of land to be taken and as to the rights of the arbitrators to sit from time to time without formal adjournment.

In addition to the hearing before the chief justice the committee of the city council is about to meet to consider the offer of $45,000 for 88 acres made by the owner of the property, and the matter is also still before the court of arbitration, and may go back to that court after the supreme court and the council committee has dealt with it.

Mr. Davis is appearing for Mr. Healey and Mr. McIlbride for the city.

Arrange for Parade.—At the A. O. It was decided that the campers will meet at the hall and proceed to the government buildings to be reviewed by H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught. Arrangements were also discussed in connection with the annual dinner which is to be held early next month, and which will take the form of a centenary celebration to celebrate the completion of the hundred years which have elapsed since the war of 1812. Mr. Dunn, who served with the Royal Horse Artillery in the Crimean campaign, was among the eight new members who joined the association last evening.

Official Welcome to T. R. H.—His ship the mayor has sent an invitation to the Mayor's Council, Royal Artillery, asking them to send a representative to the official reception which is to be given to T. R. H. the Duke and Duchess of Connaught on Friday next. This was accepted by the council and Stanley Fraser, the recipient, was appointed for the honor. It was decided that J. C. Sullivan, district organizer for Washington, Idaho, and British Columbia, should spend some weeks in this city explaining the objects of the order and otherwise assisting the council to secure a greater number of members. Hon. F. T. McFadden, the supreme regent of the order, who will visit the coast in November with his wife, is being asked to come to Victoria, and the winter programme promises to be both interesting and entertaining.

Devonian Society.—The Devonians held another successful meeting on Wednesday evening. After the report of the provisional committee had been adopted, and the rules regulating the London Devonians modified to suit local requirements, Stephen Duke Yonge, from the chair, proposed W. J. Dart as their first president, which election was unanimously adopted. Routine business having been disposed of the new president delivered warm greetings from Lord Clinton—a prominent Devon peer—largely investing in Victorian undertakings. A. C. Morrison-Bell, M. P. and others, who all wished the undertaking success and highly approved of its formation. Mr. W. J. Dart in his address gave a spirited answer to the Colonel, saying that in organizing themselves as Devonshire men and women they were congregating together—rather than segregating themselves—for the benefit of the community in which they now dwell. A decision was arrived at to hold a "Devonian dinner" in December. Henry Martin was unanimously appointed honorary secretary and all the committee members were confirmed in office.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Victoria Times, September 20, 1887.

The directors of the Provincial Agricultural Exhibition have decided on making two distinct classes for Durhams and Holsteins. We understand that the grounds are now in a forward condition for next week's show. Ample accommodation will be provided for visitors, it being understood that at least 500 can be taken care of by the neighbors. Chilliwack is famed for its hospitality, and will no doubt live up to its reputation next week. Return fares are arranged by the Canadian Pacific Navigation Company at $5 by direct steamer from Victoria.

Ex-Governor Island, Stanford, and wife; Col. Crocker, and Mr. Towne, are at the Driford. It is understood they will take a run over the Esquimalt & Nanaimo railway, in which enterprise they, with Hon. Robt. Dunsmuir, are interested.

Matters have been arranged between the Victoria Transfer Company and its creditors, and the company resumed business to-day under its own management.

The warship Bellerophon, which was ordered to the Newfoundland fishing waters, arrived at Halifax to-day, and has placed in the hospital the men who were injured by the explosion of rockets while at Quebec. September 19th the Governor-General and suite were at the old French capital. A grand entertainment was given on the warship in Lansdowne's honor. When Lansdowne was leaving, 500 men were on deck, and a pile of rockets exploded, injuring so many that the warship had to make for the Halifax naval hospital without loss of time.

Old Esquimalt Road.—Notice is given in the British Columbia Gazette that the portion of the Old Esquimalt road from Admiral's road to Grenville avenue, which runs through sublots 39, 40, 42 and 43 is closed to public traffic through sublots 40 and 41 to the present Esquimalt road, with a width of 66 feet.

Motor Apparatus En Route.—In addition to the first piece of motor apparatus which has arrived from the W. E. Seagrave company, of Walkerville, Ont., for the city fire brigade, the other three are on their way. It should be possible to hold the parade shortly after Chief Davis returns from the Denver convention, which concludes to-day.

Smith's Hill Reservoir Claims.—Prior to the meeting of the streets committee this afternoon it has been decided to meet to consider the question of the claims made for material supplied to Smith's Hill reservoir for Stedham. The merchants are pressing the city for their money, and a decision either to refuse the money and force an action, or to pay, must be reached. The amount in dispute is nearly $10,000, distributed among several claimants.

First Presbyterian Service.—A marked increase in the attendance at the morning and evening services has been noted of late at First Presbyterian church. For the last two Sundays Rev. Mr. Hunter, of Alberta, has occupied the pulpit and has addressed large congregations. Professor Bryce, of Manitoba College, Winnipeg, will occupy the pulpit next Sabbath when it is expected the congregation will be very large. A pleasing feature in connection with recent services is the improvement in the service of praise under the tried conductor, J. G. Brown. On several Sundays recently the quartette, under the direction of Mr. Robert Morrison, has contributed some beautiful male voice singing, being composed of Messrs. Gray, Morrison, Heughan and Petrie.

Injured by Horse.—Yesterday afternoon, while delivering milk at a residence, Alfred Haydock, an employee of Messrs. Baker & Burgess, draymen, was knocked down by his horse, and received injuries which necessitated his removal to the hospital. While absent from his wagon Haydock's horse became restless, and on his return the driver seized the reins and tried to quiet the animal. He lost his footing, however, and fell beneath the horse's hoofs, being trampled about the head and shoulders. A few minutes later a boy passing saw the injured man lying in an unconscious state by the curb, Dr. Barty being sent for at once ordered the patrol wagon to remove Haydock to the hospital. Several scalp wounds were found, which were given immediate attention, and Haydock is reported to-day to have passed a restful night, and to be progressing as well as might be expected.

Building Permits.—Building permits have been granted to B. O. Taylor for a garage on Carnes street, costing $200; C. Edwards, for a six-roomed house on Fernwood road, costing $2,200, and A. Foxgood for addition to a house on Pandora avenue, costing $550.

Sacred Concert in Theatre.—The announcement is made to-day that a sacred concert will be given at the Victoria theatre on Sunday evening commencing at 8.30 o'clock. An attractive programme has been arranged, consisting of good musical selections and solos by well known local artists. Details will be given later.

Victoria Women's Club.—A special general meeting of the Victoria Women's Club will be held next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Business of importance will be discussed, and it is earnestly requested that all members make an effort to be present. The meeting will take place at the clubrooms, 647 Fort street.

Luther League.—The Luther League of Grace (English) Lutheran church, corner Blanchard street and Queen's avenue, will hold a social meeting this evening in the church parlors. A short programme will be rendered during the evening, and coffee and light refreshments will be served to the guests before the close of the affair.

School Board Meeting.—A meeting of the school board will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock. The principal business being to appoint a successor to H. B. McLean, principal of the George Jay school, who is going away on sick leave. There is also about a dozen applicants for the position now vacant.

Daughters of Scotland.—The first of the social evenings to be held during the winter season by the Daughters of Scotland will take place this evening at the Forsters' hall, Broad street, the time to be spent in a social and dance. Miss Angus' orchestra has been engaged to provide music, and a good time is assured to all who attend.

Appoint Legal Adviser.—The appointment of a solicitor for the Trades and Labor council will shortly be an accomplished fact, as a committee has been appointed to wait on Frank Higgins, and invite him to arrange terms. Mr. Higgins has already acted for the labor unions in a number of compensation and other industrial cases.

Victoria Schools Exhibit.—The exhibit of the Victoria schools which was sent to the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto will not be back in time for display at the Fair next week. The needwork has been praised in the Toronto press in connection with the exhibit. The B. C. Agricultural Society was anxious to have the exhibit here, but circumstances arose which caused delay.

St. John's Ambulance Association.—The preparations for the demonstration before H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught (Grand Prior of the order) are well advanced. A team of Vancouver Police will oppose the Victoria Police team for the cup given by Sir Richard McBride, K. C. M. G. There are many entries for the other competitions, particularly in the ladies' section. The cups and prizes will be exhibited in the window of W. H. Wilkerson, Government street, on Saturday evening.

VETERANS IN ACTION.

Old Fifth Regiment Cricket Team Will Play a Strong Victoria Aggregation To-morrow.

To-morrow afternoon a match of unusual interest will be played on the Jubilee Hospital grounds when the Victoria C. C. will meet the Fifth Regiment eleven of 1897-1898, an aggregation of hardy cricket veterans, who after fifteen years of the world's buffeting are still playing the game, or at least are able to play the game in Victoria.

The old Fifth Regiment eleven will be composed of Captains Foulkes, W. York, L. S. V. York, Bernice Schwengera, C. Schwengera, L. B. Trimen, W. T. Williams, F. Ashley, J. McTavish and J. P. Hibben. This team in the years previously mentioned were right to the fore in British Columbia, and won everything before them. They won every match they played in that eventful season, even including the redoubtable Vancouver organization.

Their opponents on Saturday comprise some of the most successful local players of the season. The following strong eleven will be put in the field against them: J. H. Gillespie, H. A. Goward, W. F. L. Pilkington, A. G. D. Gray, G. B. Grant, F. J. Marshall, R. J. Horton, F. Reeves, P. D. Morrison, R. Stuart and Coppinger. The wickets will be pitched at 2 o'clock precisely.

Large Showing of Special Exhibition Pianos

We are now displaying some of the unusually handsome GERHARD HEINTZMAN PIANOS, especially built for exhibition at the World's Fair, Toronto. They are new styles, magnificent in finish, absolutely perfect (by test) in tone and action.

These Pianos excited a furore of admiration among the thousands who saw them at the great fair and were obtained by Mr. Fletcher in person for distribution in Victoria. Mr. Fletcher has just returned from the East.

We have no hesitation in saying that the public of Victoria has never had an opportunity of securing such instruments as these. The opportunity will be short-lived, as the pianos cannot last long.

These instruments are not expensive. We are selling them as reasonably as the regular makes and on as easy terms.

Worth while to see these Pianos, even if you do not care to buy. Make it to-day.

SMALLEST HARRISON LINER COMING HERE

Crown of Cordova, Replacing Seville, is but 3,472 Tons—Is Now Loading

Smallest of the Harrison liners to load cargo at European ports for Victoria is the steamship Crown of Cordova, which left Antwerp on Wednesday taking aboard heavy shipments of freight for this coast. The Cordova is but 3,472 tons, being over one thousand tons lighter than the Crown of Arragon, which was the smallest of the line to visit this port.

The Crown of Cordova has been selected to take the sailing of the Crown of Seville, a large carrier of 5806 tons. The Seville has been unable to take the sailing owing to the fact that she has been dispatched on a different voyage. The Cordova leaves Glasgow for Liverpool on Monday next and will clear from the Mersey for North Pacific ports three days later. The steamship should arrive here by the end of November or during the first days of December.

The Crown of Galicia, which is the next of the Harrison liners due here, being scheduled to dock early next month, will proceed to Prince Rupert after she has discharged cargo at Victoria and Vancouver. She has a heavy shipment of pipes for the northern town. This will be the second visit of the Galicia to Prince Rupert, as she made a special trip from Sydney, C.B., a few years ago with a cargo of rails for the G. T. P. railway.

According to notices sent to the local agents the Muscivian will follow the Crown of Cordova. She clears from Glasgow for Victoria on October 26.

BAD WEATHER COMING NORTH FROM FRISCO

City of Puebla Has Rough Time—Delayed Many Hours—Few Passengers

Bucking strong gales almost the entire time she was in sea and running into dense banks of fog at times, the Pacific coast steamship City of Puebla, Capt. Paulsen, came into port early this morning from San Francisco. The bad weather off the coast delayed the Puebla many hours, and was the cause of her late arrival. Off Cape Blanco the wind was very strong, and the vessel dipped considerably into the big sea which was running. This was the first rough trip reported by a Frisco steamship for the summer and fall months.

The Puebla came north heavily laden with freight, and she put off 240 tons at this port. This included a shipment of 2,000 sacks of plaster for Evans, Coleman & Evans, 1,000 boxes of peaches for the local merchants, and heavy consignments of other fruits together with many hundred crates of vegetables. The Puebla has about 1,500 tons for Sound ports.

A light list of passengers was brought from the Golden Gate, there being but 88 all told. Quite a number disembarked at this port including the following in the saloon: F. E. Prestno, Marie Riesbeck, Mrs. A. E. Swanson, D. M. Thompson, Wm. A. Thompson, Jas. Wolgast and wife, A. B. Craft, Lee Seck, L. G. Goodman and wife, C. Gray, E. T. Gregory, Dorcas M. Gulin, Vivian Hoops, John Jeffries, A. Jennings, Jas. Murray, A. Brodie, H. B. Campbell, D. R. Cobb, R. M. Cooper, Geo. Dawson, L. E. Durling, Mrs. Phoebe Flood and child.

For the five days' trip around the Sound the Puebla took from Victoria seven passengers, including Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ham, Mr. and Mrs. H. Nelson, E. S. Edwards, Chas. Edwards, J. B. Warnicker.

NEW FISH BOAT OFF TO SEA.

Starr Leaves Seattle—Was Outfitted in Remarkable Time—Largest Afloat.

Seattle, Sept. 20.—Another record was made when the new halibut steamer Starr, just completed at the Duthie shipyards in the East Waterway, was loaded, provisioned, outfitted and dispatched on her maiden voyage to the fishing banks in the remarkable time of fifteen and one-half hours by officials of the San Juan Fishing and Packing Company, owners of the vessel.

Barely five minutes from the time the new world beater was delivered to the San Juan company by her builders, a start had been made in putting aboard the biggest fishing gear that ever has been provided any vessel in the history of the halibut industry in this or any other country. The gear taken by the Starr consisted of sixty-five and one-half miles of fishing line carrying 57,625 good sized hooks, to be handled by twenty-four of the most skillful Seattle halibut fishermen.

Twelve dories, each for two men, were carried and eight skates of gear were provided for each dory. Each skate was 3,000 feet in length, and provided with 600 halibut hooks. To bait the hooks 120 barrels of frozen herring were put aboard and sixty tons of ice, to preserve the fish after being caught, was stowed in the hold of the vessel.

Provisions to last the crew twenty-one days were taken, as well as 800 barrels of oil fuel, sufficient to allow the new vessel a steaming radius of 4,600 miles. The total value of the outfit was $10,000. The vessel possibly may come back with a catch worth $40,000, though something in the neighborhood of $15,000 confidently is looked for as a result of her maiden voyage. Everything so far connected with the Starr has a record-breaking atmosphere. The vessel was built at the Duthie ship yards in the remarkable time of three and one-half months. She was constructed to carry 400,000 pounds of fish, the greatest cargo of halibut ever provided for in a single vessel. Her steaming radius has been arranged so that she will be able to operate further out at sea, and for a longer time than any vessel of her class afloat.

Pleiades Will Cost $100,000 to Repair—Rosecrans' Bill Big—Endeavor Lost

San Francisco, Sept. 20.—The steamer Pleiades has been put in drydock here and surveyed. It is estimated that repairs on her will come to approximately $100,000. Bids for the work will be called for by the underwriter.

The oil tanker Rosecrans, which was badly damaged by fire at Gayota recently, will also be repaired. Bids for the work will be called for next week. The Associated Oil Company owns the Rosecrans.

The schooner Endeavor, ashore at Suva, with a cargo of British Columbia lumber, has been sold, as she lies for 1550. She was surveyed and found badly damaged and will probably become a total loss.

The W. R. Grace liner Tri-color left for Puget Sound last night to load lumber for the west coast, and the British steamer Damara, of the same line, arrived from the Sound to finish her cargo for the west coast. The Standard Oil tanker Buffalo left for Woonung, China, and the schooner Gamble sailed for Port Gamble. The Japanese liner Jason left for Mexican ports with general cargo.

The Japanese tramp steamer Teurigan, Maru left Otaru Wednesday with Oriental cargo for this port. She is under time charter to Mitsui & Co. and will load lumber at Portland for China. This will be the first appearance of a Japanese tramp steamer at this port in several years.

The barquentine Ben Rosa, which sailed Wednesday from Gray's Harbor for Santa Rosalia, has been chartered by W. R. Grace & Co. for lumber from the Sound or Gray's Harbor to Valparaiso for orders at 65s. She will return to load about January 1.

HEAD LIGHTS

This morning the G. T. P. steamer Prince George, Capt. B. McKenna, left Prince Rupert for Victoria. She will dock here on Sunday morning.

Round for Holberg and way ports with a good crowd of passengers, the C. P. R. steamer Teas, Capt. Gilliam, will get away late to-night.

Last night the C. P. R. Skagway steamer Princess May, Capt. McLeod, left port for Vancouver with a full cargo of Oriental freight, which was discharged here by the Nippon liner Yokohama Maru.

The Nippon liner Yokohama Maru, Capt. Noda, left here yesterday afternoon for down Sound ports. The steamer was here 20 hours putting off 1,200 tons of cargo.

SEIZURE OF THELMA.
Mr. Justice Murphy Dismisses Application of Former Owners to Have An Inquiry.
Application for an order that the Crown be ordered to make discovery and answer to interrogatories made by the defence in the case of Rex against Carlson, which involves the seizure of the American fishing boat Thelma, was dismissed by Mr. Justice Murphy on Wednesday morning. His lordship held that it was optional with the Crown to make discovery of documents. The boat Thelma was discovered within the Canadian fishing limits. The defence is that it drifted into Canadian waters and was not engaged in fishing when seized.

INJURED OFFICER RESTS EASILY.

Chief Officer Waterhouse, Although Badly Injured, Passes Fair Night.

Chief Officer Waterhouse, of the Blue Funnel liner Titan, who was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by falling into No. 6 hold, passed a fair night last night. Dr. McMicking reports that the wrist of the right arm is broken, as well as the elbow of the left and one of his shoulder blades. It will be some time before Mr. Waterhouse will be able to leave St. Joseph's Hospital.

ADDED FEATURE FOR DUKE'S VISIT HERE

May Take Schooners Into Straits and Set Them on Fire—Company Game.

Several days ago a letter from one of Victoria's prominent citizens was published outlining a scheme whereby the Victoria Sealing Company might quickly dispose of its fleet of schooners lying at anchor at Point Ellice. The idea was to fill the craft with fireworks, tow them outside the harbor, and in the evening after the arrival of the Duke of Connaught and the royal party, have the pyrotechnic display.

One of the directors of the sealing company announced this morning that they would willingly furnish two or three of the sealers for the purpose if someone would provide the necessary articles to produce the desired effect. It appears as though this will be a new feature, heretofore unlooked for, in the celebrations being arranged for the Duke and Duchess. If the plan is carried out it would be unique, and no doubt create a most favorable impression upon the royal party.

The five schooners, Markland, Casco, Otto, Cox and Elgar, which were towed around Esquimalt a short time ago are now being overhauled and painted and deals are said to be pending with some of them. The sealers are gradually being disposed of to the different fishing companies and the famous old fleet at Point Ellice is becoming smaller.

CANNERY SHIP COMES IN.

Benj. F. Packard at Seattle, Thirteen Days From Chignik—45,000 Cases of Salmon.

Seattle, Sept. 20.—Thirteen days from Chignik, Alaska, the full-rigged cannery ship Benj. F. Packard, of the Northwestern Fisheries Company, Captain Andrew Aas, reached Seattle Wednesday night. The Packard brought a cargo of 45,000 cases of canned salmon, the season's pack of the Chignik cannery of the Northwestern Fisheries Company, and nearly a hundred cannery employees.

The vessel reached Cape Flattery on Tuesday afternoon, and after drifting for a few hours at the entrance to the strait awaiting a tug, Capt. Aas decided to sail in and spread his canvas to a stiff northwest wind. He went all the way to Port Townsend without the aid of a tug, a feat seldom accomplished by a ship the size of the Packard.

For the first three days of the voyage from Chignik the ship made more than 700 miles, and there were prospects of a record-breaking voyage, but the fourth day the vessel was unable to make much headway.

Capt. Aas reported that the cannery ships Reuce and Star of Alaska were completing their cargoes at Chignik when the Packard sailed, and are probably on their way down from the north. While the Packard was at sea John Wilson, a cannery employee, went in.

ALICE IS OFF TO-NIGHT.

To-night the palatial C. P. R. steamer Princess Alice, in command of Capt. Locke, will sail for Vancouver to be placed at the disposal of the royal party. The Duke of Connaught, with the Duchess of Connaught and Princess Patricia, will join the steamer to-morrow night and at 11:30 o'clock she will steam northward to Prince Rupert. The party will arrive there on Monday and will leave southbound on Wednesday. The Alice will arrive in Victoria on Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The Alice is certainly in splendid shape for taking the royal party on the trip. She has been painted from stem to stern, cleaned inside and out, her brass fittings and her windows appear like mirrors.

FORM RUNNERS WIN AT WILLOWS TRACK

DESMOND, ADAMS AND WHIDDEN REPEATERS

Two-Year-Olds Run Out in Opening Gallop—Betting for Thursday $32,200

With the running of Whidden, Chief Desmond, Nannie McDee, Edmond Adams and Cantom at the Willows yesterday, the mutual system of betting received its biggest advertisement here since the meeting opened. The racing going to show that the horses gain in form, each of those names winning and being rated in the best book on past performances as the form horse on past performances as the best horse in its race. The open nature of the betting, and the prohibition of overnight books, gives each member of the public the chance to watch the betting on every horse and follow in turn when a rush is being made for any particular contender. The result is that the owners can get more profit by running for the first money of the purse, and from yesterday's card, with the exception of the first race, the best form horses were the winners.

Cantom has been twice on the track, running second to Alder Gulch over five furlongs on Saturday, and yesterday coming back on a slightly faster track won at the same distance in 1:01 3-5, being 4-5 faster than Alder Gulch's time, and only 2-5 slower than the second, Chief Desmond won a mile the other evening in 1:43 2-5, and won over the same distance last night in 1:44, on each occasion having some to spare. Whidden ran back to form on his grand Saturday victory, again coming from the back in the home stretch with a burst of speed. Edmond Adams, the form horse of the six furlong race, was true to past performance, carrying the largest amount on any single horse yesterday, and repeating his Monday victory in 1-5 better time. Nannie McDee, despite her tumble of the night before, faced the barrier yesterday in the mile, and went early to the front, winning in comfort.

One of the most distinct frosts of the meeting was the baby event, with which the card was opened yesterday. Mott's Pride cut off the favorite, Russell, and half the field, carrying them up the bank and allowing Rosa Bonheur, Grigaby, and Far Cathay, to get a long lead. The leading two-year-olds, however, were so poor in quality that they ran the race three seconds slow, and Prida and Russell, after taking the top rail route, came down again and nearly overtook them, Prida making a strong bid for the third money. The race paid a good dividend, by distributing the money among the few in 3-5 shares, while Grigaby received his supporters $26 each, and paid $4.40 to show.

Slacus for the first time on the track won a good race by a length from Lookout. Free improved on his bad Monday run, and got second to Edmond Adams. In the first mile Galvina stumbled and nearly came down, bumping Trocha out of whatever chance she may have had to beat Nannie McDee. Pills appeared to be ambitious to beat Chief Desmond in the distance race, and put up a fast six furlongs, but had run his race when Meade caught him. Phillistina ran a same race in the mile and seventy yards, getting third, and showed some of her old time form.

Another jump eggs made in the betting yesterday when the seven races gave a total of $32,200, a record being reached on the Chief Desmond victory, when $6,038 went through the machine. Edmond Adams, carrying more money than any other horse yesterday, was responsible for the $6,000 mark being passed in the fourth race also. The officials are looking forward to a big day to-morrow, when they believe the machines will be congested and will take in fully $50,000. The club yesterday distributed $1,650 in prize money and collected from the machines a commission of $3,220.

JOE RIVERS

The Promising Mexican, who despite of his defeat by Wolgast on a foul at Vernon and the loss of a twenty-round decision to Joe Mando, is to be considered as a favorite for the lightweight belt. It is likely that he will again meet Ad Wolgast on Thanksgiving Day at Los Angeles. In his fight with Mando, Rivers was not found in the best of condition, which without any doubt accounted for his losing the fight.

MATT WELLS

The British lightweight who lost his fight to Hugh McHogan, the Australian, last week in London on a foul. Wells struck the little Anti-dean after the gong had sounded. Wells is coming to America in November, delaying his visit to this country owing to having just recently got married.

WORLD'S SERIES START OCTOBER 7

Which Gives Teams One Day Rest—Two Consecutive Games in Each City

New York, Sept. 20.—The world's championship baseball series is to begin on Monday, October 7. This date is said to have been provisionally agreed upon by the national commission, which met to-day to draft the plans. The date for the opening of the series was based upon the assumption that the New York Nationals and the Boston Americans would win the pennants in their respective leagues.

The Boston club already has won the pennant, and the Giants expect to win within the next ten days. The playing season of the Boston Red Sox and the New York Giants closes October 5 and one day's rest before the big series is deemed sufficient. An early start of the series is desired, as the commission desires to take advantage of the good weather. It is learned that the commission has practically decided to play two consecutive days in one city. The club owners will vote to determine which city shall have the opening games.

GAFFNEY HAS HAD GOOD RECORD

'Frisco Lightweight, Who is Here, Has Defeated Battling Nelson and Others

Tommy Gaffney, the clever little 'Frisco lightweight, who is at present in this city seeking a match with Joe Bayley, lightweight champion of Canada has had fifty-two fights in his life and only once has he finished a loser and that was to Battling Nelson on his first appearance with the Battler. In the second bout with Nelson, Gaffney gave Nelson one of the hardest battles of his time, winning every round of nine and almost making him take the count in the tenth. He made such a good showing the last time that the one defeat could hardly be used against him. Gaffney says he can make any weight that Bayley desires. The San Franciscan is a scientific boxer, knowing all the fine points of the game. If Bayley can beat a boy of Gaffney's calibre he will be right in line for Ad Wolgast, and if these two boxers ever answer the gong together, the fans will witness the classic bout seen in this part of the country in a long time. Gaffney is the style of boxer of Packy McFarland, only he has won most of his fights by the knockout route. Some of the boxers Gaffney has met are Battling Nelson, twice; Jack Britton, once; Al Rogers, once; Aurelia Herrera, once; 29 rounds; Frankie Edwards and Tommy Dracoll.

PORTLAND TAKES TWO BOUTS AT SEATTLE

Seattle, Sept. 20.—The Multnomah Club of Portland carried away high honors at the inter-club smoker held at the Seattle A. C. last night. Multnomah took two bouts. Seattle won one and Ballard annexed one. Characterized by heavy shugging the go between Mill Morrow, of the local club, and Al Meltrus, of Multnomah, both heavyweights, proved to be the feature bout of the evening. Both boys were in action from the start, and a hair-line decision to Morrow was popular with the crowd. Had George Duval, of the Seattle A. C. been able to make the required weight, he would in all probability have gained the P. N. A. 125-pound championship. Duval had Walter Knowlton, the champion from Multnomah, outclassed during most of the early period and held things about even in the last round. Knowlton, however, was given the decision. In the mat game, Frank Duncan won from Claude Fortner by aggressive play. Oliver Runchey took two straight falls from Ray Ball. He captured the first in four minutes and twenty-five seconds, and the second in six minutes and twenty seconds.

BEATS DANIELS' RECORD

Glasgow, Sept. 20.—J. G. Hatfield, the English swimmer, who was one of the competitors in the last Olympic games, broke the world's record for swimming last night at 1,000 yards. He covered the distance in 13 mins. 19 1-5 seconds. The previous record of 13 mins. 20 3-5 seconds was made by C. M. Daniels in 1907 at New York.

The Beautiful Diamond

Our Stock is Never Allowed to Run Low

DIAMONDS come from the cutters in melange lots, that is, the DIAMONDS differ materially in quality and accuracy of cutting. Many dealers lack the skill to grade properly, others MONDS or some customers will pay too much for some grades. Many dealers lack the skill to grade properly, others do not care. We guarantee the grading of our DIAMONDS, and in order to do this each lot is subjected to a rigorous test by the head of our DIAMOND department.

Owing to the fact that DIAMONDS enter Canada duty free and that they are increasing in value, the purchase of a DIAMOND or DIAMONDS may be looked upon as an investment.

Parks Committee.—The anticipated arrival to-morrow of T. H. Mawson, landscape architect, has forced the parks committee to consider the question this afternoon. Unless there is a reversal of the position adopted on Monday, the city council as such cannot recognize any contract in existence, and hence the negotiations can only start anew.

Turner Street Wharf.—Tenders are to be in on Monday for the new wharf and foundations for the incinerator at Turner street. The incinerator, however, will not be built this year, but preparations will be made so that the building can go on in the coming spring. ### GEORGE JAY SCHOOL.

Opening Exercises Were Held Yesterday.—Presentation of Trophies and Certificates.

A large crowd of pupils, parents and friends met in the assembly hall of the George Jay school at the opening exercises yesterday afternoon, when an excellent programme was rendered by the children. The decorations were excellent, being composed of flowers gathered from the school garden and tangles of wild vine.

E. B. Paul, inspector of schools, presented the high school entrance certificates to the girls, and gave some interesting facts about the school and the admirable work which had been done in it, since its opening two years ago. Mr. Paul expressed his regret at the ill-health of the headmaster, Mr. McLean, and at his enforced absence from the school, but hoped he would return to his work at the end of his leave with renewed vigor.

Trustee Standland congratulated both staff and pupils on the success of the graduating class before handing them their certificates, while Miss Hoorman presented the needlework certificates to the girls and praised them for their industry. Miss Juniper gave the diplomas to the girls who had finished the course on household science.

George Jay, the chairman of the school board, gave the girls the hockey cup for the second time, and encouraged them to practice hard.

MINING BANQUET.

Institute Met For Last Session At Empress Hotel Last Evening.

About twenty-five delegates and guests sat down to dinner at the Empress hotel last evening, on the occasion of the banquet of the Canadian Mining Institute. Dr. Barlow, the president, took the chair, and among the guests were Hon. William Templeman and J. J. Shallocross.

The chairman thanked the gentlemen of Victoria for the manner in which they had been received, and for the admirable arrangements made for the meetings. He also volunteered the opinion that though the attendance had not been large, the papers had been excellent and the discussions most illuminating.

In replying to the toast of "Our Guests," proposed by the chairman, Hon. Mr. Templeman expressed the hope that the institute would find it possible to make Victoria their rendezvous. He pointed out that British Columbia was becoming every year a more important mining country, and maybe, in the near future it would take its place as premier mining province in the country.

J. J. Shallocross followed with an amusing address about the early days of mining in the west. The toast of the western branch was proposed by Mr. Mortimer Lamb, and responded to by C. Purcell, of Rossland.

AS OTHERS SEE US.

Appreciations of Victoria and Vancouver Island in British Journals.

The following appreciation of Vancouver Island as a place for sportsmen appeared in the Daily Post and Mercury, the most responsible journal in the city of Liverpool, England:

"What is really a sportsman's paradise exists at Vancouver Island, B. C., Canada. The opportunities for fishing and shooting there, and indeed on the mainland of the province as well, are unsurpassed."

This is but an excerpt from an article which is full of praise for Vancouver Island and Victoria as resorts for sportsmen of all kinds. Dealing with Victoria particularly in its last issue, the "Colonist" had the following to say about this city, speaking of the climate enjoyed here: "The climate of Vancouver Island approximates closely to that of Great Britain, modified by its geographical situation. The proximity of the snow-capped Olympian mountains has a marked effect on the summer temperature, which is never intensely hot, while the Japan current striking the west coast, brings with it moisture and heat which temper the severity of the winter."

SEEKING LOCATION FOR NURSERY PLANT

TO DUPLICATE PLAN OF RED DEER INDUSTRY

V. P. Bull, K. C., and Associates on Visit—Dairy Herd for Exhibition Next Week

W. P. Bull, K. C., of Toronto; R. N. Holme, a brother and partner of Sir J. H. Roberts, M. P., the well known manufacturer of Lancaster, England, and Mawson Mattocks, landscape architect, arrived in the city yesterday in connection with the establishment of a large nursery and greenhouse plant, together with a herd farm, on an island, similar to the one which they are to develop at Red Deer, Alberta. Mr. Bull is president of the British Canadian Realty, Ltd., and the visitors have been travelling in Canada, visiting most of the principal cities in the west, during the last few weeks. Mr. Bull is senior partner in the firm of B. H. Bull & Sons, proprietors of the Brampton Jersey herd, the largest herd of this class of cattle in the empire. With an exhibit of 63 animals at the Canadian National Exhibition, the proprietors took 13 out of the 16 first prizes, and carried away all the firsts at the recent exhibitions at Ottawa and London.

Mr. Bull told the Times representative last evening that he was bringing 50 animals to the New Westminster exhibition, but desiring to show them first at Victoria, he had just communicated the necessary instructions to his representative, and was arranging with Mr. Sangster for space. He was confident Vancouver island residents would be glad to have an opportunity of seeing these fine examples of dairy stock brought here.

Mr. Holme and Mr. Mattocks left England on August 1, and after visiting various cities, they have decided to locate adjacent to Verity park, Red Deer, their nursery and greenhouse plant, and, contracts for immediate construction will be let, making it the largest plant of its character in western Canada. At the same site an implement factory will be established, the locality being the centre of a rich agricultural district affording special opportunities for business.

The visitors spent the day yesterday seeking suitable sites for a plant here, requiring about 1000 acres in all, including the farm for the dairy herd. They express a feeling that property outside the city is held at prices which are practically prohibitive for dairy-land, fruit culture, and farm purposes, whereas prices within the city limits seem to be much more reasonable, compared with other cities in western Canada. They think that just as Red Deer is the most desirable spot east of the Rocky Mountains, southern Vancouver island, for climatic and other conditions, commends itself to them in British Columbia. As soon as they can get land at a reasonable price the location chosen will be announced.

WELSH BARONET ON VISIT HERE

SIR J. H. ROBERTS, M. P.
TRAVELLING IN CANADA

Will Not Discuss Politics, but Pleased With Trip Through the Dominion

A distinguished Welshman arrived in the city yesterday in the person of Sir J. Herbert Roberts, Bart, M. P., for West Denbighshire for the last twenty years, who is spending the recess in Canada studying political and other developments.

Sir Herbert has the typical Celtic temperament, and his championship of the cause of Welsh nationalism is not less devoted than that of his more renowned countryman, Mr. Lloyd George. The son of a member of parliament for a county adjacent to that in which he resides, and married to a daughter of the well-known temperance leader, W. S. Caine, M. P., it was not surprising that politics should attract his attention at an early age, and since that time he has given useful service to Liberalism and the cause of reviving the spirit of Welsh national life.

Sir Herbert disclaimed any desire to talk politics, remarking that he was not in Canada to give lectures for the guidance of Canadians, and to make attempts to embroil them in the partisan jealousies of the old country. He was sorry to see that so many British parliamentarians in Canada this fall had taken the opportunity to talk party politics here. For that reason he had kept away from interviewers, preferring to use his own judgment on affairs, for future assistance in imperial problems.

For that cause he would not discuss the Welsh disestablishment bill, but he would like to express his gratitude to Canadian people for the manner in which they had welcomed him and placed information at his disposal in common with other British visitors. Sir Herbert said he yielded to no man in his belief in the imperial connection, but he had his doubts of the possibilities of maintaining or strengthening the ties of the imperial association by some of the methods suggested.

The questions of trade, preferential or otherwise, of federation, centralization or decentralization of administration, and of defence were so closely bound up with politics that it was almost impossible to discuss them in a calm dispassionate manner. He was afraid the materialistic activities of the West prevented probably a clear conception of political issues to-day, but he had little doubt as the time went on, that some sentiment on this subject would arise as it did in other lands, where conditions and opinions had passed beyond the constructional process.

Informed by a Times man that Victoria had an active Cymrodorion Society here, under the presidency of a lady prominent in many philanthropic and educational enterprises, Sir Herbert asked how the Welsh immigrants were doing in the West, and was glad to hear of the position in the community, and the respect of their fellow men, enjoyed by the former inhabitants of the principality, and expressed the opinion that more Welshmen would come here in the future than in the past. He said he was glad to know that they were maintaining unimpaired the Celtic individuality and the national characteristics, which centuries of subjection had failed to remove.

Sir Herbert Roberts will be in the city for a short time before starting on his journey east.

Y. W. C. A. BANQUET LAST EVENING

STARTED CAMPAIGN FOR RAISING OF FUNDS

For Erection of New Building—Work of Association Warmly Praised

Last evening in the reading room of the Y. M. C. A. the board of directors of the Y. W. C. A. entertained the board of trustees at a banquet, the guests gathering round the table shortly after six o'clock, and the idea of the meeting being in order to discuss the proposed campaign for funds for the erection of the new Y. W. C. A., and to debate the various means of raising the required money.

About twenty guests were present, including the members of the board of directors of the Y. W. C. A.: Mrs. Adams, president; Miss Fawcett, vice-president; Mrs. Scates, vice-president; Miss Bradshaw, general secretary; Mrs. F. Niven, recording secretary; Mrs. H. Hillis, treasurer; Miss Bromley-Jubb, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Collis, Mrs. John Turner, Mrs. W. N. Mitchell, Mrs. Bromley-Jubb, Mrs. Beckwith and Mrs. Smith, His Worship Mayor Beckwith, and the advisory board of trustees, Messrs. Chas. Hayward and Wootton (who have been on the board since its formation), H. Hillis, Wm. Spencer, W. A. Mitchell (president of the Y. M. C. A. board of directors), and Mr. Frame, architect for the new building.

Mayor Beckwith. Towards the close of the banquet Mayor Beckwith was called upon by the chairman to address the guests, his address expressing his pleasure at being present on the occasion, and saying that he was very much interested in the motive of the gathering and in reports which had been read on the work of the Y. W. C. A. along different lines which they had taken up among the young women both entering and resident in this city. He was surprised at the amount of work which these reports stated had been accomplished, and was very much interested in the course of training in household and domestic science which it was proposed to commence in the new building. He felt that it was work which was very much needed among the young women, and would do much in helping those who were really in need of assistance. He did not believe that the directors would need to institute a house-to-house campaign and thought that the business men of the city would be ready to help the work without this wide effort.

Chas. Hayward. Chas. Hayward, who spoke next, advised that the campaign should be postponed until November, as there were a number of things which would come before the citizens in the meantime which would occupy their time. Alderman Beard, who spoke enthusiastically of the scheme, said that he would give whatever help he could to advancing the success of the work. Mr. Wootton disagreed with Mr. Hayward as to the advisability of postponing the campaign, saying that the time was now, and that the citizens were ready and waiting to give their help. Wm. Spencer and Mr. Hillis both agreed with this sentiment, and urged the opening of the campaign at the earliest possible moment. Mr. Mitchell said that his experience with young men's institutions had made him rather blind to the ability of the ladies' institutions, but that hearing the reports just read he was startled by their capacity to deal with the situation.

At the close of the various speeches, which concluded about nine o'clock, the guests dispersed, and it will be decided at a meeting in the near future exactly what steps will be taken with respect to the campaign.

Y. M. C. A. SOCIAL.

Cricketers En Fete To-night to Entertain Swimmers—Close of Successful Season.

The Y. M. C. A. Cricket Club will hold their social evening to-night at the Blanchard street building and they will entertain the members of the swimming club at the festive board. The social will mark the close of a very successful season, for the work of the cricket eleven during the summer has been worthy of the best traditions of the Y. M. C. A. Though not always successful in their matches, their plucky fights against more experienced players have been noteworthy, while their victories over several good clubs entitle them to much praise.

On Saturday many of the cricket members will turn out for a football practice game, when the soccer club of the institution holds its second training match between sides captained respectively by Messrs. Hewitt and Stott. From the form displayed by the various members of both teams, it will be possible for the committee to choose an aggregation to play in the first of the intermediate league games on October 5.

THE WEATHER.

Good Prospects for the Week-End—Slight Frosts Again in the Prairies.

The weather on the Pacific coast today is not only extremely favorable with warm sunshine and light breezes, but bright with promise for the immediate future. The barometer remains abnormally high all over the Pacific slope, and even up to the northern limits of this province, so that every indication points to a fine and favorable week-end.

The frosts of last week on the prairies are in evidence again to-day, though they are not so heavy as before. The temperature this morning in most parts of Alberta showed about two or three degrees of frost, while slight showers occurred in Manitoba. Nearly nine hours of sunshine were recorded in Victoria yesterday while the minimum temperature was only forty-six degrees.

CARNEGIE LIBRARY.

Fifteen Hundred New Books to Be Ordered for Lending Department.—New Assistant Begins Work.

Within a few weeks from date patrons of the lending department of the Carnegie library will have a much better selection to choose from than ever before. The librarian, Miss Stewart, is now ordering about five hundred fresh works of fiction and about one thousand volumes of non-fiction. In addition to these about three or four hundred of the old books are to be sent out for re-binding, so that the library shelves will be more than usually full in about six weeks from now, when the books are expected to arrive.

Miss Eva Wheelock, the new assistant, has settled down into the place recently vacated by Miss Scott, and as a thoroughly experienced exponent of library work will be of immense assistance to the staff during this particularly trying time at the building. Miss Wheelock will hold her present position for one year only.

THE COAL STRIKE.

Mottishaw Incident Goes Back Several Months—Appeal to Premier.

It is stated that the trouble of the Cumberland miners goes back over a long period. Oscar Mottishaw, one of the men dismissed by the company, was a member of the gas committee at the Extension mines. Mottishaw is said to have made statements which were not satisfactory to the management, and later was dismissed from employment at Cumberland where he had moved.

A committee of the United Mine Workers of America investigated the complaint, and declared there was no other reason for his removal than the stand he took on the gas committee. The other man concerned, James Smith, was also dismissed, and on the refusal to reinstate by the colliery management, the strike developed.

The provincial government have been asked to offer relief in the situation, the United Mine Workers having requested the premier to enforce the Coal Mines Regulation Act, which they declare has been violated by the Canadian Collieries, Ltd.

This letter has been received, and is receiving the consideration of the government.

"THE MIKADO" AN OPERATIC TREAT

FINE PERFORMANCE
HERE LAST EVENING

De Wolf Hopper Improves With Age—Splendid Singing and Fine Chorus

During the present season there has been a marked revival of the Gilbert & Sullivan operas in the United States, and in coming here at the very opening of the theatrical season with one of the old-time favorites, Mr. DeWolf Hopper, of the Gilbert & Sullivan Festival Company, has conferred no doubt quite unwittingly—a special favor on the people of Victoria who have an admiration for the works of those musical collaborators of a generation or so ago. Perhaps of their nine or ten works, none of the Gilbert & Sullivan operas has been more popular than the "Mikado," which was given last night at the Victoria theatre, and its very age—for it was written in 1881—seems to have mellowed rather than staled its charms. Nearly everyone in the audience had heard it before, some many times, and there was a fine relish in anticipating the bon mots and topical-to-their-time epigrams which had been heard first over the footlights at the Savoy theatre in London. As music it is classical of its kind, and as sheer fun and burlesque it stands without a parallel except among operas by the same composers, while the business of the play has become traditionalized through long acting and rehearsing under the immediate eyes of the authors.

Like the play itself, Mr. DeWolf Hopper improves with time, and has rarely been seen to such advantage as in the role of Ko-Ko, the Lord High Executioner of Japan. From start to finish he was the mirth-provoking element round which all others revolved as satellites. His voice has lost nothing in volume, while in mere elocutionary power it has gained considerably of late. In gesture he is inimitable, and there is a beautiful consistency between his motions and his words which might well be imitated by those who are working for distinction in musical comedy and opera. But greater than all these is the delightful spontaneity of his humor, the convincing sincerity of his wit, which convulses the audience with laughter and abandons them to the drollery of the moment as if it were the real thing. Either as Ko-Ko in love or the Lord High Executioner, "who wouldn't kill a fly," DeWolf Hopper was plausible and conveyed the satirical sense of the play with unflinching effect.

"Star Revival" aptly describes this clever production of Messrs. Shubert and Brady, as without exception every member of the cast was a finished artist. Pooh-Bah, impressed with the dignity of his numerous offices, was eminently superior in his bearing, and possessed of a very fine deep bass voice, gave an exaggerated importance to his pompousness by wrapping his ideas in fine-sounding words. This part was excellently impersonated by Eugene Cowles, whose stature and singing were no negligible assets in the role of Lord High Everything Else. Arthur Eldridge as Nanki Poo possesses a very sweet and sympathetic tenor voice, and made an instantaneous hit with his minstrel song, his acting, however, lacking somewhat in the warmth and color which characterized his singing.

Pish-Tush, a solemn functionary with impassive countenance and uncouth voice, was played with commendable restraint by Arthur Cunningham, while George MacFarlane, with one of the best make-ups of the part ever seen here, gave a splendid interpretation of the part of the Mikado of Japan. His enunciation was one of the features of his singing, while the rollicking quality of his bass voice made a vocal foil to the impassioned tones of Pooh-Bah. In this role the play affords a second "comic" character which, under the discreet playing of Mr. MacFarlane, was comedy of quite another variety to Ko-Ko's. Adequately ugly and with just sufficient dramatic exaggeration to be really funny, Miss Kate Condon, made an instant impression on her audience with her fine contralto voice, and unhesitating manner in the role of the unloved Katisha, her counterpart being found in the dainty and graceful Yum-Yum, a part prettily taken by Miss Blanche Duffield.

From the highest to the lowest performer on the stage great care had been taken in dressing the parts, and the big chorus was not only almost musically faultless, but was artistically dressed and made up with due care to detail. The staging was a really wonderful exhibition of the art of stage producing with limited space, the audience being scarcely conscious of the narrowed dimensions within which the large chorus had to be disposed when the whole cast were on the stage. After seeing this delightful production it is to be expected that there will be crowded houses for the production of "Patience," which is to be given this evening, and the matinee performance of "H. M. S. Pinafore," which will be given to-morrow afternoon, the engagement concluding with "The Pirates of Penzance" to-morrow night.

"Willie, can you tell me what a vegetarian is?"
"A vegetarian is a person who lives on vegetables," replied Willie.
"That is correct; now I wonder who can tell me what an octogenarian is?"
"I know," cried Robbie.
"Well, what is an octogenarian?"
"A octogenarian is a person who knows the other genarians."

A Mistaken Idea

Because Fashion-Craft is sold as ready-to-wear—that—the clothes and other materials used are not on a par with those to be found at a first class custom tailor's.

We positively state and can prove that the highest grade woollens made can be bought in any Fashion-Craft Shops in Canada only in greater assortment and at lower prices than any custom tailor could possibly attempt.

We have the great advantage of buying direct from the best factories in the world in quantities from 50 to 500 yards instead of purchasing 2½ to 10 yards from a wholesale woolen house as an average custom tailor has to do. See the saving in cost of Suit or Overcoat? You get it.

OAK BAY POLICE APPOINTMENTS

To the Editor:—I had intended to await Reeve Oliver's return before asking him to call on S. J. Beckton to withdraw his statement published in your paper that I "was telling a bare-faced lie."

Mr. Oliver has of his own initiative forwarded a letter through the clerk of the municipality, which he wishes you to publish, and which proves that my public statements have been quite true.

I also demand that my letter be inserted in your columns, and I will leave it to the good sense of your readers whether you have shown common courtesy in refusing to publish my first letter to you on the subject in question, and afterwards allowing me to be called a liar by one of the disappointed applicants for office.

Without prejudice to any action for slander that may ensue from your editorial control, I enclose Mr. Oliver's letter with my own.

Yours truly,
J. HERRICK MCGREGOR,
Acting Reeve, Municipality of Oak Bay.
Oak Bay, Sept. 19.

The Times did not refuse to publish a letter; every letter received from Mr. McGregor has been published.—Ed.

To the Editor:—As I have been out of touch with Victoria news I have only to-day read in your issues of last Friday and Saturday a statement made by an unsuccessful applicant for the position of chief of Oak Bay police, that I told him he must use discretion in arresting speeders "as there were a lot of influential people in Oak Bay."

I merely wish to state that I never made such a statement either to your correspondent or to anyone else, and it isn't really credible that I would suddenly confide in a total stranger views which are directly opposite to those I hold, and to those I have repeatedly expressed in council meetings, to individual members of council, and to all in sundry.

Your correspondent takes himself too seriously. He was only one of a great many applicants, several of whom I saw and examined. His application Mr. Noble and I, after consultation and enquiry, agreed not to recommend to the council.

Yours truly,
W. E. OLIVER,
Reeve Municipality of Oak Bay.

Majestic Theatre.

"The Church Across the Way" sounds the harmonizing note and brings cheer and sunshine into a discordant home. A young man whose wife has died, would gladly welcome death. He hears the voices of the boy choir in the church across the way. A new hope is aroused. He finds a homeless child and brings it into his home. She brings cheer and gladness into his heart and hearth. "The Church Across the Way" will bring sweet thoughts of consolation to all who attend the "Justice to-day and to-morrow." On the same bill is "The Music Hall Singer," a picture which has a grace of its own, and some very charming scenes. "Her Hour of Triumph" is a society drama. "An Interrupted Engagement" is a good biograph farce comedy that is quite fresh and very funny. "The Tragedy of a Dress Suit" is another biograph and a true mirth-maker, with a human situation. It has humor mixed with heart interest, and is well conducted and acted.

The Princess Theatre.

The offering for the coming week at the Princess theatre is "Mothers," written by the well known French author Ouida. She has written a great many books and many of them are dramatized, notably "Under Two Flags" and "Strathmore," but none of them can lay better claim to stage requirements than the beautiful story of "Mothers." It is a society play, and the plot is laid in Russia and England. It is the story of a pure innocent girl (who scorns falsehood and diplomacy) forced into a loveless marriage (by a scheming mother) to a hardened brute, who is only tolerated and received on account of his immense wealth and high position. When he discovers that his young wife secretly despises himself and his methods, he tries to drag her down to his own level, but failing to do this he banishes her to an out of the way estate in Poland, where she is confined and treated like a prisoner.

The part of Vera, the wife, will be played by Miss Mildred Page, and it is expected that she will play well the shy innocent girl who gets her first impression of the world in the opening act, and who as she discovers the falsity of it all changes gradually into a reserved woman who, though she cannot escape from the life she has been dragged into, will never lower herself to its level.

Richard Lonsdale will be seen in the romantic role of Raphael De Corazze. Miss Hattie Mitchell will have another of the charming ingenue parts to which she is so well suited, and the remainder of the cast have all excellent parts.

A feature of this week's bill will be beautiful costumes and stage effects. The curtain the coming week will rise at 8.15 instead of 8.30.

"Those shoes," Doc, ain't worth mentioning," said the shoemaker, after an examination. "Then, of course," said the doctor, turning away, "I don't want anything done to them." "But I'll charge you a dollar just the same." "What for?" "Well, you charge me a couple of dollars the other day for telling me that there wasn't anything the matter with me."

ARE YOU LEVEL-HEADED?

Can You See Beyond
the End of Your Nose?
Of Course You Can!

Then, This is for You

Let us suppose that you have a couple of dollars or so that are not working. You know that you can do better than leave them in a bank. You know that more money has been made by advances in realty values than by any other means; the question with you is: Where can I invest my little stake to the best advantage and enjoy the greatest security and the most certainty of enhancement? That is the question that we can answer for you. The answer is:

Mt. Tolmie Park Estate

But we don't want you to take our word for it. It would not be fair to yourself to pop your savings into the first property that came along, even if it looked particularly good. There are many good properties on the market. Some of them offer good buys for small prices and fairly low terms. We want you to see them and buy in them if you think best. But we also want you to see our property and buy in it if you think best. Just a fair show and a square deal for everybody; that's our desire.

We honestly believe that we have the very best, low-price, high-grade homesite property on the market. It has a score of desirable features that will make it saleable for all time. Lots are big—66x125—all in grass, and rockless; there is an abundance of pure, cold water; several fine homes already built and occupied by nice people; more good houses being built; view is particularly desirable, taking in Mt. Douglas Park and the Valley; streets are 66 feet wide; part of property is in orchard; church and school are close; near Cadboro Bay; surrounding districts developing rapidly.

The University School is near this property. The Mt. Tolmie car line at present terminates there. That this line will shortly be extended to the new city park is known. The announcement may come at any time. Of course, as soon as it does, values will soar far beyond the reach of the small investor.

The time to buy is right now—to-day.

PORT ALBERNI AND INDUSTRIAL GROWTH

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy Anticipates Great Development There Along Various Lines

When at Port Alberni recently Sir Thomas Shaughnessy was interviewed by a representative of the Daily News of that place, and said the object of his trip was not to size up the harbor and waterway in connection with the advisability of his company using it in the immediate future for the purpose of shortening the mail and passenger route to and from the Orient. That question was not at present under consideration.

Sir Thomas said it was the industrial and shipping prospects of the port in general that were now being inquired into. Port Alberni, he said, was regarded as one of the company's important ports, and he believed that before long the whole stretch of waterfront would be lined with manufacturing industries. In his opinion there was soon to be an active development on a large scale of the lumber manufacturing business. There would be large shipments going from here to the prairies over the railway, and shipments by water, probably more important, to Europe. The lumber industry was not by any means all Port Alberni had to look forward to in the manufacturing line, but it was the most important item at the present time.

Referring to the tourist trade, Sir Thomas said it would undoubtedly be a valuable asset, but insignificant in comparison with what he had previously mentioned.

"What's the matter, John?"

"Why, ma'am, here's a note from the master, and he tells me he's off on a little holiday, and he wants me to send his drawing materials along."

"Well, isn't that plain enough?"

"Hardly, ma'am. I don't know whether to send his paints and brushes or a cork-screw."

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF SCHOOL TRUSTEES

Will Be Held at Kamloops on September 24, 25 and 26—Many Delegates Expected

The ninth annual convention of the B. C. Association of School Trustees will be held in the Central public school, Kamloops, on September 24, 25 and 26. Secretary Dougan reports that lists of delegates are being received daily. "Many of them," he said, "assure us that every member of the board will attend. Thus, this convention, in spite of the fact that it is held at a time when the numbers, the interest in and gain therefrom will be inestimable. Many of the provincial school inspectors and others long interested in education, will be present to assist in deliberation. The list of the local and district representatives is the fullest guarantee that all features of education will be considered more ably, interestingly and helpfully than at any previous convention. Without regard to province or locality, we have been able to secure those best posted educationally to present the phase with which each is most conversant. In this manner every trustee may depend on getting the best available information for his greatest difficulty.

From All Parts.

"We have already in our convention welcomed delegates from Alberta, and this year Manitoba will be represented by two delegates and Saskatchewan by one. The attitude of Hon. Mr. Caldwell (Manitoba) to pay the expenses of delegates to our convention is most pleasing. As the matter of naming those delegates has been left to the Trustees' Association, the names have not yet reached us, but will be published in due time. Both Deputy Minister Fletcher (Manitoba), who will attend, and Superintendent D. P. McColl (Saskatchewan) are rendering great service to Western Canada in general, and British Columbia in particular, in recommending arrangements whereby all the western provinces can deliberate on the important questions common to all. This will mark an era in the educational administration of the west and great benefits must result to the broadening of educational ideals.

"Besides presenting greetings from the great plains, the delegates from the three prairie provinces will, each present an important phase of education in his own province. In the matter of discussion, delegates from all four provinces will freely participate. In view of this important arrangement it is sincerely to be hoped that no board, for any reason whatever, will fail to send as full a delegation as possible. The leading resolutions to be presented will likely be ready for publication in a few days.

Hearty Invitation.

Attention is called to the advisability of all delegates obtaining the standard convention certificate, as all are to be returned free. As many as possible should invite their wives and friends to attend. They, too, are entitled to the convention rates and can enjoy a pleasant holiday in the convention city. Any board that has not sent in a list of delegates ought to do so without delay."

The officers of the British Columbia Association of School Trustees are: Hon. president, Hon. H. E. Young; president, W. E. Plummer; first vice-president, Capt. D. McIntosh; second vice-president, J. M. Wright; secretary-treasurer, J. J. Dougan. Executive committee: A. R. Stacey, North Vancouver; G. A. Stevens, South Vancouver; L. A. Palmer, Kamloops; J. J. Dougan, Vancouver.

H. R. H. THE DUKE PRESENTS MEDAL

Miss Margaret Tilly of This City Honored in Vancouver To-day

This morning at 11 o'clock in the Trades and Labor hall, Vancouver, Miss Margaret Tilly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Tilly, of Shoal Bay, had the honor of being presented by H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught with the gold medal, which she won last June for highest marks in violin in the examinations held under the auspices of the Associated Board of the Royal Academy of Music and the Royal College of Music, London. Miss Margaret, who last Sunday celebrated her twelfth birthday, has already won a medal for piano, which she studied for three and a half years under Miss Miles, her first lessons in violin being taken under Mr. Bantley. For the last two years she has been a pupil of Miss Ethel Lawson, of Vancouver, and has made such rapid headway that at the recent June examinations she took the highest marks of any student in the Dominion, being at that time only eleven years of age. H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught very graciously consented to present the certificates and medals for the associated board of the R. A. M. and R. C. M. during his visit to the province. The presentations taking place this morning at the Trades and Labor hall, Vancouver.

A farm to be run by women has been secured in Sussex. The work will include live stock, fruit growing, vegetables and flower gardening, and agricultural crops. The farm is 223 acres in extent.

IDEAS OF A PLAIN MAN

BY DR. FRANK CRANE

Don't be afraid of your generous emotions.
The worst fear is the fear to be too great.

The meanest satisfaction is to be content in being like others.
If you trust a friend, trust him unto death. Of course you may be deceived in him. But better be humiliated by betrayal than be incapable of perfect faith.
If you love your wife, love her utterly. She may not appreciate it. But better be unappreciated than to miss the joy of perfect self-giving.

Don't be too afraid of casting your pearls before swine. Better that than to hoard your pearls. And Jesus, who said it, did cast his pearls before many swine.

Don't be afraid to forgive. The object of your forgiveness may be unworthy, but that cannot mar the fineness of your pardon.

Don't be afraid to show yourself worth friendship.

Don't be afraid to believe in good-

NEW EDIFICE WILL BE CREDIT TO CITY

Congregation Authorizes Committee to Commence Canvass

Another church will shortly be added to the edifices in the district around Quadra street, between the North Park and Johnson street, which has become the most popular for places of worship.

In this area St. John's Anglican and the First Congregational churches are building, and the First Presbyterian is locating, while at a meeting last night the congregation of the First Baptist church set on foot financial arrangements for the handsome edifice planned to occupy the excellent location at the corner of Fisgard street.

At the meeting the congregation promised $25,000, and when another $15,000 is added the start will be made with construction. Probably the church building will cost about $75,000. At present temporary premises are in use under the pastorate of the Rev. J. H. Wernicke.

When the result of the active canvass, which has been inaugurated, is completed, another meeting of the congregation will be held to receive a further report on the work. Meanwhile the task of collecting the necessary funds has been entrusted to an influential committee of church members.

TWELVE MONTHS FOR A CLOTHING THIEF

Theodore Heinz Pleads Guilty on Three Charges—Missing Goods Held by Detectives

Giving as the cause of his appearance in the police court dock this morning an extended drinking bout which cost him all the money he had, Theodore Heinz, charged with theft of clothing from three different lodging houses, endeavored to obtain mercy of the court, but when the magistrate heard from the detectives who arrested him in the act of trying to sell the clothing, that he was then sober and knew what he was doing, Heinz's fate was decided, and he received three terms of six months each, two of them to run concurrently, and one cumulatively, making the length of his term for the three offences one year.

He entered the room occupied by a workman, James Peacock, from whom he took trousers and boots. The accused pleaded guilty to this charge, and held himself equally responsible for thefts from two other men in similar circumstances. His plea for an easy sentence was made after the hearing of the first case, but he did not renew it when the others were brought.

The arrest of Heinz was brought about yesterday when he was seen by Detectives Purdie and Murray walking along Government street with a large loosely wrapped bundle under his arm. The detectives were searching for a thief reported to the office by the three men who had lost their clothes, and believing that the bundle Heinz was carrying might contain just such goods as those reported missing, the detectives followed Heinz, and finally decided to take him into custody.

Their decision proved to be a right one as, when they searched him, a key was found in his pocket which fitted the door of the room he gave as his address, and therein the police recovered the other articles reported stolen by William Bevan and James Tyrell. Other goods were secured when the man's room was searched, and the police have some articles at the detective office for which they are seeking the owners.

Pandora Avenue Naming—Since the last meeting of the streets committee, when the question of re-naming Pandora avenue came up, the press has been full of suggestions for the new name, some sensible, others far-fetched. This afternoon it is doubtful whether the supporters of a new name will be ready to report on their proposed interview with the Oak Bay council to secure a uniform name for the whole street to the sea.

"Verna, are you going to school?" asked the village teacher.
"No, I ain't going."
"Oh, do not say 'I ain't going,' you must say 'I am not going.' Then she proceeded to give her a lesson in grammar. "You are not going, he is not going, we are not going, they are not going. Now, can you say all of that?"
"Sure I can. There ain't nobody going."

DECORATIONS FOR THE ROYAL VISIT

PRIVATE PERSONS
ARE HOLDING BACK

Mayor Will Appeal to Patriotism of Victoria Citizens—The Lumbermen's Arch

A meeting of the civic decoration committee for the reception of the royal party on Friday was held yesterday, when a number of details were settled.

It is understood that the city authorities will seek to bring to a successful consummation the proposed lumbermen's arch, for which the Canadian Puget Sound management have promised the necessary rough lumber. An undressed lumber archway typifying in its rugged lines the majestic monarchs of the Vancouver Island forests is felt to be a worthy tribute to the royal party, and would serve to call attention to the timber resources of the island. The arch of this character in Vancouver has proved a striking success, and the capital city does not intend to be behind the movement. The Devonian Society, recently organized in this city, would be glad to avail themselves of the privilege of sharing in the decorations with an arch, and accordingly will meet the decoration committee this afternoon on the subject.

The only set-back so far seems to be the apathy of persons on the line of march in showing a desire to decorate. Some of the banks have already promised their share, but as the portion of the line of march is largely owned by non-resident owners benefiting under the estates whose interests here are represented by agents, it is feared the results may be spasmodic. Mayor Beckwith contemplates an appeal to the public to show their patriotism in a manner becoming the capital city of the province.

There will not be a public half holiday so far as the day of arrival is concerned, on account of the hour at which the royal group will land, but the usual public holiday will be declared for Thursday for the Provincial Exhibition, as custom has always dictated.

Admission to the enclosure on occasion of the presentation of the civic address on Friday evening will be by card. This step has been considered necessary on account of the proper regulation of the function. This afternoon there will be another meeting of the principals of the public schools to arrange for the song festival before the royal visitors on October 1 at the Central school grounds. At the subsequent meeting of the school board, an appropriation will be asked to carry through the decorations and similar features for this memorable function.

SECRETARY C. SIVERTZ RETURNS TO VICTORIA

Attended Annual Congress of Trades Congress at Guelph—Useful Meeting

Christian Sivertz, secretary of the Trades and Labor Council, returned to the city last evening from the annual convention of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada at Guelph.

At the special meeting of the council of the local body to be held on Wednesday Mr. Sivertz will report fully on the proceedings of the conference. He praises the arrangements made at Guelph for the reception of delegates, and says he has never known them better. The government had placed the drill hall at their disposal, and there was also adequate accommodation for the officers of the congress.

Mr. Sivertz was on the resolutions committee and they sat far into the night, in fact, into the early hours of the morning before they got through their work for the coming sessions.

They had a visit from J. Keir Hardie, M.P., who preached the doctrine of peace in international affairs as well as internationalism in industrial questions. The next conference will be held in Montreal. A former Victorian, Mr. J. C. Watters, was elected for the second time president of the congress. Secretary P. M. Draper will go to England as fraternal delegate to the British Trades Congress, a new departure on the part of the congress.

The meeting is believed to have been one of the best in the record of the congress. There were 291 delegates present.

"If We Had Only Bought There Then—"

A month or so ago a man and his wife were visiting Montreal, and they were taken one afternoon by their host, to Westmount, a residential suburb that has grown considerably within the past few years. "There," said the visitor, "is a lot that was offered to me for $1,000 a few years ago." "That's interesting," replied his host, "because that very lot was sold for $3,500 last week, and cheap at that." "Oh, why didn't we see it when we lived here," lamented Mrs. Visitor. "If we had only bought there then!

Esquimalt Election

I take this opportunity of thanking my friends for their kind support in the recent election for school trustee.

Although defeated at the polls, I am still of the opinion that the results would have been quite different, only for the fact that dozens of soldiers (and single men at that) not having the qualifications to vote, were brought over from Rodd Hill in boatloads to vote for trustees. What do the people think of this?

LEAD THE MARKET

Main List of Shares Remain Firm in Face of Realizing Sales

(By Courtesy F. W. Stevenson & Co.)
New York, Sept. 20.—Some genuine bull enthusiasm developed in the New York stock market to-day, led by the standard coppers and Steel common. Amalgamated Copper passed 89, which is the highest level for some years, and Anaconda followed in the wake of strength. The main list held well in face of some scattered realizing which followed, and if advances are in great part maintained for a few days it is not unlikely that many who heretofore have refrained from entering the market on a large scale will take hold.
Utah Copper suffered less from the liquidation incidental to the unsettled state of affairs in the Bingham camp, for it is generally realized that even should the property shut down for a few months that the company's strong financial position will probably obviate the necessity of suspending or curtailing dividend payments.

NEWS FOR WHEAT

TRADE CONFLICTING

Upturn in Prices in Morning, but Reaction Marks the Close

Chicago, Sept. 20.—Good action marked the wheat trade for the day. Following the strong market of yesterday, the trade took the selling side at the opening, but the market hardened. From this point there was an upturn of about 1/4 during the morning, but the close was on a reaction. Action in the market was partly due to the influence of corn, both early and late. News for the wheat trade was somewhat conflicting as the Liverpool cable was firm and higher, which offset the large spring wheat in the Northwest. Paris was strong because millers are active buyers of cargoes on arrival. Buenos Ayres market was higher on export demand. There was a tone of firmness in the Northwest markets all day.

The trade took the buying side of the corn market at the opening and forced an advance of 1/4 cents or more in the new crop months. La Salle street houses alone were credited with buying heartily. Cash market ruled higher. Receivers claimed that many of the country shippers are asking an extension of time on sales made to arrive, because of car scarcity.

Oats, strong.

PLAYING THE RACES.

Los Angeles Women Complain That Husbands Lose Money Gambling.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 20.—Police commissioners were astonished to-day to learn that at least twenty-five reports were operating in the city where gambling on horse races were conducted. The commissioners and the chief of police said they thought Los Angeles was entirely free from this sort of gambling, but were informed to the contrary by Mrs. Mary Richey, wife of an artist, who declared her husband was one of a large number of men who had been reduced to penury by this form of betting. Mrs. Richey had caused her husband's arrest on failure to provide, and then gave the names of several resorts her husband had frequented. A number of other women whose husbands also have been playing the races visited the central station to-day and gave further information.

FINDS PROGRESS ON ALL SIDES

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy Arrives at Winnipeg—Wet Weather Delays Crops

Winnipeg, Sept. 20.—Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific railway, arrived in the city at 1 o'clock to-day after making a thorough inspection trip over the western lines. With him were Geo. Bury, vice-president, and general manager of the western division, and J. C. Sullivan, chief engineer.

"I am delighted with all I have seen in the West," said Sir Thomas. "I find development and progress everywhere I turn. However, this wet weather is very unfortunate as it is delaying the crop movement. We have cars distributed throughout the West waiting for the grain movement to start. The transportation situation this fall all depends on weather conditions. If it clears up there will be no great danger of a blockade on our lines, but if it remains wet it will be bad."

He said the company would build at once a new station at Vancouver. Sir Thomas denied that he had cut short his western trip to get back to the capital to meet Premier Borden. He refused to discuss the rumor that the C. P. R. would build a United States Pacific freight line. He knows nothing of the report that the C. P. R. will tunnel the Rockies.

WATERWAYS COMMISSION.

Kenora, Ont., Sept. 20.—Whether it will be to the benefit of the manufacturing interests in this district to maintain the present level of the Lake of the Woods with regulation, or whether the level should be made higher and maintained without regulation, were the two main questions discussed before the joint commission on international waterways at Kenora this morning.

In opening the session Hon. Chas. E. Casgrain, who occupied the chair, welcomed the American commissioners to Canada.

WILL HOLD DEMONSTRATION.

Montreal, Sept. 20.—Acting on suggestion of Premier Borden, the Conservative Association of this city is preparing for a public demonstration to-morrow night in celebration of the first anniversary of the defeat of the proposed reciprocity agreement with the United States. The demonstration will take the form of a political meeting.

WILL RE-OPEN MINE.

Manager of Properties at Bingham Says Men Who Desire to Work Will Be Protected.

Salt Lake City, Ut., Sept. 20.—The return of D. C. Jackson, general manager of the Utah Copper Company, to his office in Salt Lake City, the movement of machinery under guard and without interference at the Utah Copper works, and extreme quiet among the miners were the developments in the Bingham mine strike this morning. Hundreds of persons on shore saw the hydroplane sinking and watched the aviator climbing into the higher parts that remained above water, while half a dozen boats were rushing to his rescue. In sliding into the water to participate in a race Semmlouk tore off the rear part of his machine, but it apparently was unaware of it until it got into the lake. The machine never left the water.

Alleged frauds on bank.

Montreal, Sept. 20.—Henry Legace, a ledger keeper in the Bank of Hochelaga, was arrested to-day on a charge of defrauding the bank of $35,000. He appeared before Judge Lafontaine, pleaded not guilty and was remanded. J. A. Morin, on behalf of the bank, says that the fraud had been going on for nearly a year. It is alleged that Legace operated many accounts in the bank under fictitious names, made out checks on these accounts and marked them with the bank stamp as being approved.

PROPOSED CANADIAN LLOYDS.

Quebec, Sept. 20.—Discussing the question of a Canadian Lloyds, Messrs. Fry & Co., Lloyds agent at Quebec, state that the immediate construction of another graving dock in Quebec suitable for repairing the numerous large steamers now using the St. Lawrence route, which cannot enter the present dock, would relieve the anxiety experienced by underwriters more than the provision of up to date aids to navigation. This would also have a greater tendency to induce them to reduce their rates, which would result in increased trade via the St. Lawrence.

It is reported in New York that the G. F. Cons. has taken preliminary steps looking to the withdrawal of its shares from the New York Stock Exchange and their re-establishment on the curb market.

COLLISION IN MIDAIR.

French Aviator Says He Protested Against Flying in Approaching Darkness.

Chicago, Sept. 20.—"I protested to the Aero Club of Illinois against flying in the approaching darkness, but the officials insisted I should fly because the crowd would be disappointed if I did not."

George Mestach, the French aviator, so testified to-day at the inquest into

RUSSIAN AVIATOR HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Rescued by Motor Boat After Explosion Had Wrecked His Hydroplane

Chicago, Sept. 20.—Ignatz Semmlouk, a Russian aviator flying at the aviation meet in Grant park, was rescued a mile out in Lake Michigan late yesterday after his hydroplane was blown to pieces on the water by an explosion of the radiator, and just as he was sinking with the last remnant of the framework. Semmlouk was burned about the back. He was rescued by a motorboat. Hundreds of persons on shore saw the hydroplane sinking and watched the aviator climbing into the higher parts that remained above water, while half a dozen boats were rushing to his rescue. In sliding into the water to participate in a race Semmlouk tore off the rear part of his machine, but it apparently was unaware of it until it got into the lake. The machine never left the water.

GORGE ROAD PAVING WILL COME UP TO-DAY

Adjourned From Last Friday on Account of Financial Consideration

Another effort will be made by Ald. Board at the meeting of the streets committee of the city council this afternoon to secure the letting of the contract for paving the portion of the Gorge road between Manchester road and Carrall street.

At the last meeting of the streets committee the aldermen favored the work being carried out, and the only question was that of the financing of the undertaking, which was estimated at about $22,000 to $25,000. The work is so placed at the present time that when the contractors are on the street with their materials, they could much more easily complete the other section, which forms the second of the portions of the road between the Fountain and the city boundary. The Westholme Lumber Company is also at work on the street, and it would be desirable to get the section through before the rainy season sets in, both from the standpoint of the Canadian Mineral Rubber Company and the Sooke Lake waterworks contractors.

The residents are also anxious to have the work pressed concurrently, so that the inconvenience may be minimized. They don't want one portion finished and then another started, such as might be the case if the council did not push the companies to complete their contracts now.

It is practically certain that nothing will be done about the third section this year. At the same time the Spanish council is seeking to bring the continuation from the city boundary at Harriett road to Tillium road into decent shape, and to arrange for a permanent paving right out to the bridge over the Gorge.
